

From: Kurt Semler
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/24/02 2:13am
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

I do believe that Microsoft business practices have not been that considerate of the need for competition, however what business does act fairly in competition? Nobody does. Any gain is a positive one in the business world. Without the efforts of Microsoft, we would still be using IBM XT's running only 32Kb of RAM. Microsoft is responsible for the technology revolution. Their practices may not be fair, but their products are top of the line.